

Tackling Health Inequalities in the East Midlands A Workshop led by the Health Inequalities National Support Team

Thursday 16th July 2009

Trent Vineyard, Easter Park, Lenton Lane, Nottingham, NG7 2PX
[Main Auditorium]

- 09.30 Registration
- 10.00 Welcome & Introduction to the day
Tim Rideout, Chief Executive Leicester City Primary Care Trust
- 10.15 Health Inequalities in the East Midlands – An Overview
David Meechan, Director East Midlands Public Health Observatory
- The East Midlands Regional Support Team
Nick Salfield, Deputy Regional Director of Public Health, East Midlands
- 11.00 Introduction and Learning from the Health Inequalities National Support Team Visits
- The National Support Teams & Health Inequalities
 - Purpose of the Workshop
 - Health Inequalities NST - Overview and Models
 - Introduction to the 'Marketplace'
- Cathy Hamlyn, Director of the National Support Teams; Ann Goodwin, Deputy Head of the Health Inequalities National Support Team*
- [11.45 Coffee / Tea]
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Marketplace – 'Stalls' presenting a brief insight into examples of effective practice in tackling health inequalities
- Family Nurse Partnership (FNP)– Derby City
 - 'First Contact' – Lincolnshire County Council
 - SWAP – Corby Borough Council
 - Joint Strategic Needs Assessment (JSNA)
 - 'Warm & Well in Derby' – Derby Council
 - Engaging with the Workforce – Nottingham County Council
- 15.45 Feedback and Overview
Ann Goodwin
- 16.00 Close
-